

Project management intern

At Sweet Sneak Studio we help other companies strengthen their brand experience by using the power of food, designing concepts with a focus on events, communication strategies and visual work. To support us on this exciting journey we are looking for a brisk Junior Project Manager, who shares our passion for food, aesthetics and telling stories in our Copenhagen office.

The internship consists of assisting our team in:

- Event management
- Project design, budgeting and execution
- Developing of internal systems
- Business development

YOUR PROFILE

- Currently studying business, marketing or similar
- Hungry to push a start-up to the next level
- Not afraid to take initiative and work independently
- Strong analytical skills, structured and organized
- Advanced user of MS Office, special focus on Excel

WHAT CAN WE OFFER YOU?

- Hands-on experience in an ambitious creative studio
- Responsibility and freedom to let your creativity flow
- Good vibes: At Sweet Sneak Studio we achieve the best results by working together
- Great atmosphere: Work with us in the nicest studio in town or sneak into the coolest venues all around Copenhagen for our projects
- Lunch, coffee & snacks

FORMALITIES

- Duration: 4-6 months, part-time (15-20 hours)
- Compensation: the internship is unpaid. Good amounts of delicacies to be expected though!
- Start date: March 2019

Digital or analogue, typed or handwritten, quiet or loud.

We look forward to meeting you!
